

My Think Big Life

Encouragement for the mind, body, & spirit

SAVE TIME & MONEY BY CLEANING YOUR CLOSET CHECKLIST

Step One—Motivation: Why You Are Doing This

There are lots of reasons to clean your closet out. They come down to Time & Money.

- You don't wear most of what's in your closet.
- The mess affects you energetically.
- It's easier to get ready when you have a clean closet.
- It's less work.
- Your clothes will stay nicer.
- You save money because you don't buy things you don't need.

Step Two—Get Rid of This Stuff!

Don't overthink these too much. Trust your intuition and let go of these things.

- Wire hangers
- Anything that needs fixed
- Anything stained
- Clothes that don't fit
- Mistake shoes
- Old battered purses or ones that don't fit your style
- Clothes you bought on or for vacation that don't work where you live
- Clothes that are worn out
- Clothes that aren't "you" anymore
- Anything piled on the floor

Step Three—Organize

With much fewer things to work with, this step is actually fun.

- Pick one kind of hanger (maybe 2 since pants need their own kind sometimes) to use for everything you keep. Do the best you can to start but at least use matching hangers for each category.
- Put all your clothes into categories: no sleeves, short sleeves, long sleeves, sweaters, pants, skirts, dresses, jackets, cardigans.
- Arrange your categories to fit your needs and your closet space.